2.2 Age Groups

Youth D: born 2011-2014
C: born 2009/2010
B: born 2007/2008
A: born 2005/2006
Junior: born 2003/2004
Open A and B: born 2006 or before
Masters: born 1982 or before

Please note each age group will have a male and female category.

2.3 Event format

For each age group a total of two hours climbing time will be allocated for each event, as set out at 2.4. Open A will have an additional finals round. The competition style for each group will be as follows:

Youth D: Pumpfest
Youth C: Pumpfest
Youth B: Boulderjam (x7 problems)
Youth A: Boulderjam (x7 problems)
Junior: Boulderjam (x7 problems)
Open X: Pumpfest
Open C: Pumpfest
Open B: Pumpfest
Open A: Boulderjam (x5 problems) followed by a 5 on/5 off final round
Masters: Pumpfest

In a Pumpfest, competitors climb a selection of problems and the scores of their hardest eight tops contribute to their final score. Attempts may be considered where scores of competitors are level.

In a Boulderjam, competitors attempt a set number of problems, with the total number of tops, attempts and zones, contributing to their final score.

Participants will be provided a full briefing on the rules before the commencement of their session.

Please note the event format is consistent with the SCA State Boulder Title format as per the Competition Policy at <https://sportclimbingaustralia.org.au/page-18117>

2.8 International Competitors

International competitors may compete but are not eligible for the South Australian Title.

International competitors must be members of SCSA.

2.9 Australian Sports Anti-Doping Authority

As an Olympic Sport, Sport Climbing is now subject to anti-doping controls, managed by Australian Sports Anti-Doping Authority (ASADA) in Australia. Anti-doping plays an important part in keeping competitors safe and competitions fair. Sports Climbing Australia is working with the Australian Sports Anti-Doping Agency (ASADA) to keep the sport clean. Drug testing may take place at any national competition and members of the Australian Team are also subject to random testing in and out of the competition season.
