

SPORT CLIMBING AUSTRALIA

Competition Policy

SCA Delegate – Job Description

- The SCA delegate works in close collaboration with the other competition officials to ensure all Sport Climbing Australia policies are being abide by during the competition.
- The SCA Delegate deals with all SCA-related organisational matters during the running of the competition.
- The SCA Delegate has the authority to ensure that the facilities and services provided by the competition organiser (such as registration of competitors and others; scoring and results service; and medical, media and other facilities) are in accordance with SCA Regulations.
- The SCA Delegate is a member of the Appeals Jury, and has the right to attend all meetings with the competition organisers, and take part in an advisory capacity in meetings of the Competition Jury.
- In the absence of the Jury President and before their arrival at a competition, the SCA Delegate acts on their behalf in respect to the organisation of the competition within the Competition Area. Under exceptional circumstances, the SCA Delegate has the authority to decide to apply emergency measures, for instance an adjustment of the competition format. These measures are specified separately by the SCA.
- The SCA delegate will ensure other officials are fully completing their role and will provide advises when necessary.
- The SCA Delegate provides a written report to the SCA Board on the Head Judge the Jury President and the Head Route Setter at the conclusion of the event, including a recommendation to the SCA Board as to whether they have successfully performed the role and met the criteria to be granted full qualification.
- For competitions where an SCA Delegate has not been appointed or in the case of the absence of the SCA Delegate, the Jury President will take over the duties of the SCA Delegate.
