Climbing Formats:

BoulderJam:

Open A athletes will qualify in a 'Boulderjam' format. Athletes will have 5 boulder problems. They may attempt the boulders in any order and have unlimited attempts within the fixed time period for the round (2 hours). The starting order on each boulder will be set by the order in which athletes present their score cards to the boulder judge. After each attempt, the athlete may move to a different boulder or resubmit their scorecard on the same boulder. The overall ranking will be calculated according to the number of tops and bonus' as well as the amount of attempt it took to achieve the tops and bonus.

The 6 highest ranked males and 6 highest ranked females will compete in the Final round.

PumpFest:

Masters, Intermediate, Beginners and Youth categories will compete in a 'Pumpfest' format, all categories at same time. Climbers will have 2 hours to attempt as many climbs as they wish. At the completion of the round (2 hours), The overall ranking will be calculated according to the number of tops.

Finals:

Final round will consist of 4 boulders. All Finalists will have a 2 minute viewing time as a group of each boulder before climbing begins. Climbing time will be 5 plus (meaning if you are on the wall when the 4 minutes is up then you can finish that attempt). The overall ranking will be calculated according to the number of tops and bonus' as well as the amount of attempt it took to achieve the tops and bonus.

Officials:

Route setters and judges will be available during the event to answer competitors' questions and enforce climbing rules.

To compete in the competition the climber acknowledges all information detailed in this handbook and agrees to abide by Adelaide's Bouldering Club Rules and Procedures.

The competition will use the IFSC rules 2015 as guideline.

By registering for this competition, the climber authorises Adelaide's Bouldering Club, Sport Climbing South Australia and Vertical Reality the use of images/photographs/movies that may be taken at the event. To revoke authorisation of the use of photographs taken from the event, the climber must submit in writing to aboulderingclub@gmail.com no longer than the 5th of September 2016.
